

STEP 1: Receive Acceptance Letter

You will receive an Acceptance Letter from your Partner University. This is the official proof that you will be a student in Turkey and is part of the application requirement for your student visa. When you receive your Acceptance Letter ensure that your details are accurate. If they are not, you will need to request a corrected version from your Partner University.